CASANDRA PEREZ

Ms. Perez practices in the areas of federal and state court receiverships, complex business litigation, securities litigation and bankruptcy primarily representing creditors and asset purchasers in Chapter 11 bankruptcy cases. Ms. Perez has represented various corporate debtors with all aspects of their bankruptcy cases.

Ms. Perez represents both federal and state court-appointed receivers in marshalling and distributing assets for the benefit of creditors. Ms. Perez' receivership experience involves working in conjunction with the Securities and Exchange Commission, Commodity Futures Trading Commission and financial institutions to obtain and implement temporary restraining orders, preliminary injunctions and asset-freeze orders, followed by the collection and preservation of assets. Ms. Perez also practices complex business litigation with a focus on fraudulent transfer actions, investment and real estate related disputes.

Ms. Perez has also assisted in the representation of numerous landlords in the enforcement of leasing rights in bankruptcy cases of large retail store chains. Ms. Perez speaks Spanish and has experience representing debtors in cross-border corporate restructurings in Latin America.
