RUSSELL LANDY

Mr. Landy practices in the areas of Business Torts, Contract, Complex Commercial Litigation, Class Actions, Employment Litigation and Real Property Litigation. Mr. Landy has coordinated the negotiation and distribution of settlements for large class actions and collective actions. He has also participated in the firm's capacity as a Distribution Agent for The Securities and Exchange Commission.

Prior to joining Damian & Valori LLP as an attorney, Mr. Landy was a law clerk with the firm. He was also a Certified Legal Intern in the State of Florida, and while interning at the Miami-Dade County State Attorney's Office, Mr. Landy successfully tried four criminal cases in the Juvenile Court.

Mr. Landy received his law degree from the University of Miami School of Law (J.D., May 2007) and was a member of the University of Miami Business Law Review. Mr. Landy was awarded Honors recognition for Trial by the University of Miami School of Law Litigation Skills program. Mr. Landy received a Bachelor of Business Administration from the University of Miami in 2004. He double-majored in Marketing and Finance while serving as both the Athletic and Academic Captain of the Men's Track and Field team.

Mr. Landy is a founding member of the Board of Directors and the Vice President and General Counsel of Fun 4 Kidz, Inc., a non-profit organization that works in the United States and Jamaica with professional athletes, government entities, and the community, to provide programming and scholarships for underprivileged children to participate in educational programs, after school sports and activities. Mr. Landy also represents clients on a Pro Bono basis.
